GOD'S NOT DEAD SYNOPSIS

How far would you go...to defend your belief in God?

Josh Wheaton (Shane Harper) is a college freshman and devout Christian who finds his faith challenged on his first day of Philosophy class by the dogmatic Professor Radisson (Kevin Sorbo). Radisson begins class by informing students that they must disavow the existence of God, in writing, or face a failing grade. As other students begin scribbling "God is dead," Josh faces a crossroads of having to choose between his faith and his future. Josh offers a nervous refusal, and Radisson smugly assigns him a daunting task. If Josh will not admit that "God is dead," he must prove God's existence by engaging Radisson in a head-to-head debate in front of the class. If Josh fails to convince his classmates of God's existence, he will fail the course and hinder his lofty academic goals. With almost no one in his corner, Josh wonders if he can really fight for what he believes. Can he actually prove the existence of God?

GOD'S NOT DEAD weaves together multiple stories of faith, doubt and disbelief and culminates in a dramatic call to action. The film will educate, entertain, and inspire moviegoers to explore what they really believe about God, igniting important conversations and life-changing decisions.

ABOUT THE MOVIE

It's no secret that many people are asking spiritual questions such as, "Does God exist?" Much of our culture—on university campuses and across all spectrums—lives as if He does not. Those who do believe and follow Jesus are asking, "How can I stand up for what I believe? What evidence that God is real can I offer to friends or family?" GOD'S NOT DEAD provides answers in an engaging story that was a box-office hit.

While most students and adults may not face a foe as directly antagonistic as Professor Radisson, all of us will be faced with real-life decisions and choices to obey God's ways instead of the prevailing practices of the world around us. GOD'S NOT DEAD weaves together examples of people who must count the cost of following Christ. The movie offers solid intellectual evidence for faith and encourages viewers with depictions of the fruit that can result from one faithful decision to obey God and the impact on others that it can make.

GOD'S NOT DEAD is an inspirational movie for students, adults, the church and the wider community. It's an excellent tool to open conversations about faith and doubt, the existence of God and His offer of salvation, obedience and impact and God's ability to use one faithful individual who is willing to follow Him through adversity. Use GOD'S NOT DEAD to challenge your church and community to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind" (Matthew 22:37)—no matter what the challenge.

INSIDE THE MOVIE LICENSE PACKAGE

Welcome to the power of story. You have chosen to take your church and community on a journey toward the healing power of God's love. For some it will be an impactful reminder or an opportunity to serve in an exciting new way — for others, it will be a first-time, life-changing encounter.

Your Movie Event begins with this Planning Guide, designed to help you maximize the impact of your movie in your church and community. It will guide you through four phases involved in preparing for a Movie Event: PLAN, PROMOTE, HOST and FOLLOW UP.

Note: The phases are interconnected, so reading through all of them before you begin will help generate ideas and develop a vision for your event. Feel free to make copies of this guide for your leadership team to encourage excitement and idea-sharing!

License

Your Site License gives you permission to show the film as often as you like during the next 12 months. You may renew the Site License at the end of the year for half the original purchase price. If you choose not to renew the License, you may keep the DVD for your personal or church-lending library (for home use only). Keep in mind that the Site License does not allow churches to charge admission; however, you may charge for refreshments or childcare to help recover costs. Refer to your Site License for specific provisions regarding showings.

If you have any questions or need assistance as you plan and promote your movie event, feel free to contact an Outreach Specialist at 800-991-6011. We pray that God will bless your outreach efforts in powerful ways!

Your Movie License Package includes:

- DVD with full-length movie
- This Movie Event Planning Guide
- Promotional Tools, such as InviteTickets and Bulletins
- Discussion Guide

If you purchased the Movie Event Package you also received:

- God's Not Dead Church kit, including sermons and movie clips
- God's Not Dead DVD-based Small Group Study Kit
- God's Not Dead Student Kit

Invitation and Promotional Materials

Use these promotional tools to build excitement, increase awareness and make your Movie Event a hit!

Posters: Customize the bottom panel of your poster with your event information, and post in high-traffic areas around your church and community.

Bulletins: Customize these church bulletins with a perforated, tear-out response card. Hand them out at meetings and events, place them in your weekly bulletins or at your church's information center.

InviteTickets: Easy to customize and hand out as an appealing invitation to your Movie Event. Churches report that InviteTickets are one of the most successful marketing pieces they have used!

PLAN

Think ahead. Recruit help. Accomplish significant goals. And make an eternal impact.

- 1. Establish a vision. Think BIG! What would you like to see God accomplish through this Movie Event in your church and community? How will you customize it to incorporate your church's mission, objectives and values? GOD'S NOT DEAD drew millions of viewers to movie theaters and challenged lives with the clear truth of the Gospel. Your Movie Event can be a powerful catalyst to change lives.
- 2. Set an appropriate budget. Remember to include refreshments, visitor gifts, decorations and your License. A Site License does not allow churches to charge admission; however, you may charge for refreshments or childcare to help recover costs.
- 3. Get your leaders involved. Provide an advance showing for leaders and volunteers to build their excitement and commitment. Brainstorm together to plan and promote your outreach. Equip and empower them to use the GOD'S NOT DEAD Movie Event as a way to reach their friends and neighbors. And don't forget your youth group or college group—GOD'S NOT DEAD has high appeal to students.
- 4. Target your audience. Who in your community is most likely to relate to GOD'S NOT DEAD? Who is most likely to attend? This film raises themes of belief, courage, purpose, pain, hope, worldview and faith in action. It shows the power one person can make by standing up for what they believe. And it's an impactful story for teens, tweens, young adults, couples, families, and men's and women's groups. Anyone facing adversity or in need of inspiration will be encouraged.
- 5. Engage parents and families. Schedules are hectic and parents are challenged to find good entertainment options for the whole family. Enlist your church's families as a way to serve and minister together and reach other families in your community. Teens especially love movies—GOD'S NOT DEAD makes a perfect youth group a churchwide outreach to rally around.
- 6. Partner with others. Team up with other churches, ministries, schools or other local organizations to maximize outreach and build community. Which ones around you are involved in evangelism or apologetics? Are there any universities or campus ministries near you? Build partnerships to plan and host, share costs, sponsor the event, loan equipment and spread the word. Offer to introduce and distribute the groups' materials at the event.
- 7. Schedule the date. Consider the daily routines and typical behavior of your target audience, and choose a date with the least amount of conflicts, perhaps the day and time of your normal meetings. Summer and back-to-school seasons are excellent time frames for students to prepare for classroom challenges to their faith. Also consider two showings on consecutive nights or an early matinee. It requires more effort but could increase attendance significantly.

- 8. Location, location, location! Where will you host your event? Holding the event at your church encourages visitors to casually explore your campus and meet your members with no expectations—they might even feel comfortable enough to return later for a Sunday morning service! If your church facilities cannot provide the environment you'll need, consider renting a community center, other public gathering site or a local theater (as long as the theater can project the movie from a DVD). But make sure to provide a clear connection to your church (i.e., have volunteers wear badges or shirts with your church's logo, or offer flyers that include your service times and directions to your campus). Important Reminder: Confirm the location of your GOD'S NOT DEAD Movie Event at least a month in advance so you can promote it.
- 9. Ask for help. Don't do all the work yourself! Share your vision with others and ask them to volunteer to help you make the event happen. Consider recruiting gifted people for the following positions:
 - Event Planner: A person who enjoys details and timelines, perhaps with a gift for administration, who will oversee the particulars of the event.
 - Networker: An outgoing people-person who will recruit volunteers, initiate partnerships with other organizations and spearhead the congregation's effort to invite their friends and family.
 - Technician: A patient, technically minded troubleshooter who will test the DVD and operate the audio/visual equipment during the event.
 - Prayer Team: Several dedicated believers who will commit to pray that the event would touch lives and change hearts. Ask them to keep the planning team in their prayers as well.
 - Event Host/Emcee: An outgoing person who will open the event, welcome visitors, introduce the film, give follow-up announcements and answer questions as needed.
 - Greeters: Warm, welcoming folks who enjoy meeting new people and have a good knowledge of your church.
 - Discussion Leaders: People who enjoy facilitating spiritual conversations and will be available after the event for attendees with questions about the

PLAN CHECKLIST

DECIDE

- Vision and event objectives
- Location—confirm at least 1 month in advance
- Target audience
- Date
- Refreshments
- Follow-up (i.e., post-movie Q&A, discussion groups, follow-up sermon series or small group)

CONSIDER

- Partners: ministries, non-profit organizations and other churches
- Door prizes
- Overflow room
- Place for antsy children (or childcare)

LINE UP

- Recruit volunteers (event planner, networker, technician, prayer team, host/emcee, greeters, discussion leaders, facilities, set-up/tear down, etc.). Ask as early as possible.
- Create an agenda/timeline for your event. Think through each element (welcome comments, announcements, special guests, pre-show entertainment, closing comments, Q&A, etc.).
- Write script or bulleted talking points for host/emcee.

movie's themes. Depending on how you decide to follow up, these volunteers may also lead discussion groups after the movie or host a follow-up small group on themes from the movie.

- Other Volunteers: Flexible individuals to help with facilities, setup/teardown, refreshment service, parking, childcare, etc. Ask volunteers well in advance of the event to show respect for their time and to aid in planning.
Idea: Consider showing the movie to your volunteers before your event to help them catch the vision and allow them to focus on serving during the event itself.

- 10. Create an agenda. Give volunteers a timeline so they know what to expect. Include welcoming comments, announcements, pre-show entertainment and games, movie showing, closing comments, Q&A or discussion time, post-show activities, etc. Include technical requirements, and clarify all transitions between elements. (To help you get started, an agenda template was provided as a Digital Download when you purchased your License.) Ideas:
- Project a looping PowerPoint presentation as attendees arrive to promote your group meetings, activities or small groups.
 - Will you host other movie events in the future? Show trailers. Check out other Movie Licenses at OutreachFilms.com.
 - Start with a short film for an old-fashioned movie theater experience.
 - Will your emcee need a script? Develop at least talking points and give it to him/her ahead of time.
 - Include plenty of time for all post-movie discussions and activities.

- 11. Plan for children. GOD'S NOT DEAD is family-friendly, so prepare to welcome children. However, keep younger, more sensitive audiences in mind. Provide childcare for young kids to draw more people and to allow parents to enjoy the film. Include even the youngest with a simultaneous "Kids' Movie Event," showing an age-appropriate film in the childcare room (complete with its own Q&A session).

- 12. Serve refreshments. Create a movie theater environment with typical theater fare, such as popcorn, sodas and candy. Or encourage mingling and fellowship over a simple meal before the event. Decide if you'll charge for refreshments or give them away. Although your License doesn't allow admission fees, it does permit food sales as a means to recoup costs.

- 13. Have fun with a theme. Movies can transport us into other places and times. Have fun with it! GOD'S NOT DEAD is set on a university campus. Consider decorating around a college theme. Think school colors, textbooks and prep clothes. Food or snacks can tie in. Dress volunteers in matching outfits or themed accessories. Plan contests such as college trivia. Be creative!

- 14. Plan for follow-up. A Movie Event allows visitors to feel comfortable in your church, and GOD'S NOT DEAD creates opportunities to dialogue about important topics like the existence of God, courage, taking a stand, redemption, salvation, faith and purpose. You can help attendees process their thoughts and observations in these ways and more:

- Hold a post-movie Q&A session hosted by your emcee.
- Offer optional discussion groups at the end of the showing to discuss themes from the movie. You'll need a few group leaders to lead the groups. Discussion Questions are included with this kit.
- Host a four-week small group study using the GOD'S NOT DEAD Small Group DVD. Use selected video clips to segue into the Bible and explore the truth and love of Christ.
- Use a Church Kit to schedule a comprehensive follow-up small group and sermon series based on the biblical themes presented in GOD'S NOT DEAD. Each Campaign Kit includes resources such as sermons, video clips and promotional tools. Use GOD'S NOT DEAD as the centerpiece of a campaign to draw your members and visitors into the deeper spiritual themes of the movie and ultimately into a life-changing encounter with Jesus.

- 15. More ideas to get you going.

- Door prizes are a great way to encourage people to come to the event. They also help you collect contact information for visitor follow-up.
- Feed the movie into an overflow room as it's often difficult to estimate attendance.
- Invite a Christian counselor to be available after the movie, and promote his or her business or ministry during the event in exchange for their participation.
- Have resources available related to apologetics, evangelism and developing a biblical worldview. Have pastors on hand to speak with people about questions, and invite a local representative from any applicable ministries. Many ministries such as Cru and InterVarsity specialize in reaching college students.

IMPORTANT AUDIO/VIDEO REMINDER:

It is important to perform a test of the DVD as soon as possible after it arrives. Make sure to test the DVD on the equipment you will be using during the event, including the DVD player, speakers, lights, sound and projector.

DVD CLEANING TIPS

- Use a microfiber cloth or a soft cloth that produces no lint.
- Always clean in straight strokes from the DVD's center to the edge. Never clean in a circular motion.
- If necessary, use rubbing alcohol, mineral water or a water/detergent solution. Avoid using tap water; it may leave white watermarks on the DVD. Never use petroleum-based solvents like acetone (e.g., nail polish remover) as they will permanently damage the disc.

PROMOTE

Creativity is the key to spreading the word and making a visible presence. Use the valuable resources at your fingertips.

- 1. Start early! Begin promoting two to three weeks before the event.
- 2. Get the church on board. Spread the vision for outreach church-wide. Personally recruit outgoing members, leaders and key influencers who will understand your vision and actively support the Movie Event. Customize the Bulletins (part of your resource file) to distribute in the weeks leading up to the event. Ask the teaching pastor to announce the event from the pulpit and show the

PROMOTE CHECKLIST

(Start two to three weeks before event)

- Customize InviteTickets and Bulletin Inserts with event info.
- Customize posters with event information. Put them up in high traffic areas in your community.
- Announce event and show trailer during Sunday service.
- Hang banner or sign outside the church.
- Encourage word-of-mouth.
- Put banners and trailers on church website.
- Send email to church list.
- Announce on social networks.
- Promote on local radio stations or newspapers.

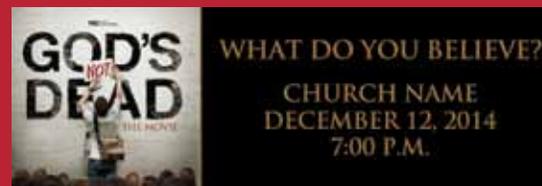

movie trailer during church services and other ministry events. Make sure the announcements explain the significant outreach potential and encourage church-wide participation.

3. Build interest. Hang a banner or other sign on the church building inviting the public to attend your Movie Event (many churches report that this is an effective way to get people from the local community to their event).
4. Provide incentives. Announce any refreshments, door prizes or follow-up studies in your promotional materials—it will help create interest!
5. Encourage personal invitations. Word-of-mouth is the most effective way to get people to your event. Encourage and empower your members to invite friends, family and co-workers. Equip them with InviteCards and ImpactMailers, included in your Movie License Package. Churches report that InviteCards are one of the most effective tools they've used.
6. Get online. Place a banner on your church's home page and create a Facebook event page about your Movie Event. Include the movie trailer to build interest. (Web banners are provided as a part of your Movie License Package, and the trailer is available on YouTube.)
7. Send email announcements to your church list. Link to the movie trailer and event details on your website and event page.
8. Maximize social networks. Announce it on your Facebook page, create a Facebook event, and ask each member to invite five of their friends to come. Use other networks such as Twitter, Pinterest, Google+ and GodTube as applicable.
9. Tweet and text. Send announcements through your church's or volunteers' personal Twitter feeds. Schedule a Text-a-Thon for everyone to text announcements to their contact lists on the same day. Here's a sample message: Want to see a great movie? I'm going to GOD'S NOT DEAD Fri night. Txt me back.
10. Put up promotional posters—in local businesses, bookstores, grocery stores, coffee shops, apartment buildings, community bulletin boards and other public places where your target audience shops, works and plays. (Posters are available in your Movie License Package.)
11. Post on community calendars. Contact newspapers, TV and radio stations, local magazines, mail-out coupon providers, recreation centers or clubs—anyone who posts a calendar of local events.

12. Get on the air and in print. Ask local radio stations and newspapers to sponsor and promote your event. Develop a press release for local news outlets.
13. Be creative. Try these ideas to guide your group's vision or public promotions.
 - Unleash your teens. Students love movies, and inviting their friends to a Movie Event is a nonthreatening way to reach out. Challenge your youth group to spread the word through their social networks and digital devices.
 - Each one bring one. Challenge every church member to bring at least one friend. Offer prizes for those who bring the most visitors.
 - Spread the trailer. A picture is worth a thousand words. Post it. Email it to friends and neighbors. Show it often.
 - Share the message. Encourage your members to post "God's Not Dead" in and around their homes, schools, neighborhoods, workplaces and social media networks. Have them text the message to all their contacts. Then follow up with the date, time and location of your Movie Event.

HOST CHECKLIST

- Give final agenda/timeline to your volunteers.
- Deliver the pre-movie PowerPoint slides to your technician.
- Review script or talking points with your host/emcee.
- Check DVD player, speakers, microphone, lighting and any other equipment you'll be using.
- Make sure bathrooms are unlocked.
- Put up directional signs if the room is hard to find.
- Collect feedback/visitor information.

HOST

Set a fun and welcoming atmosphere to help visitors feel comfortable and eager to come back and engage in follow-up activities.

- 1. Pray with your team.
- 2. Get ready! Position greeters inside and outside the facility to help direct visitors and answer questions. Communicate that connecting with visitors and creating a warm environment is a top priority. Put directional signage outside to help people find the location quickly. Make sure restrooms are open, clean and clearly marked.
- 3. Get set! Check that all microphones and technical equipment are operational and ready. Confirm that all volunteers and other participants are in place and equipped.
- 4. ACTION! Stick to your agenda but be flexible. Begin on time. Welcome everyone warmly and quickly explain what the audience can expect (e.g., film length, refreshment access, giveaways, any special speakers, a Q&A session afterward, etc.). Position greeters with flashlights to assist those who must leave the dark room during the showing. Watch during the event for those who become sensitive to God's movement in their hearts. Some may even come to know Christ during your Movie Event, so be prepared to introduce Him if the opportunity arises!
- 5. Keep things fun and friendly. Place an emphasis on maintaining a welcoming, family-friendly atmosphere for first-time visitors. Try these ideas:
 - Roll out a red carpet at the front door to give the feel of a Hollywood premier. Have a photographer on hand to take "paparazzi" family photos.
 - Play a game before the show. Movie trivia can be easily engaging for all. You may even project questions onto the screen like a movie theater does. Just include them in your looping PowerPoint show.
 - Make a mini concert. Give your youth group band or worship team the stage to play background music for those arriving early.

- 6. Roll the credits. During the end credits, have the emcee or another volunteer lead Q&A discussion or direct participants to smaller groups to share their questions and insights. Offer a quick invitation to come to a Sunday service or join a follow-up GOD'S NOT DEAD small-group study. Keep it short, or people will get restless.
- 7. Collect feedback. Ask for feedback from attendees. Door prizes are a fun, nonthreatening way to encourage people to come to the event and to collect contact information to facilitate your visitor follow-up!

FOLLOW UP

This is what a Movie Event is all about: reaching out, building relationships and setting the stage for individuals and families to encounter Christ's true hope and healing.

- 1. Discuss the movie. GOD'S NOT DEAD clearly presents the Gospel, and it will likely bring up spiritual questions and issues in the minds of viewers. To make the most of this growth and connection opportunity, host a short discussion group immediately following the event, using the Discussion Questions in this guide and in your Movie License Package. If you cannot host a discussion group right after the showing, give out copies of the discussion questions to help people continue to process the film's themes.
- 2. Plan a follow-up study. Use the Church Kit to launch a sermon series and small-group studies for adults, teens, kids, families, single parents, men, women, educators—anyone likely to be touched by GOD'S NOT DEAD and your Movie Event. Check out the resources at OutreachFilms.com.
- 3. Continue the ministry. Consider using your Movie Event to kick off a new ministry for reaching out and supporting students, teachers or parents in your community. Be a source of encouragement and knowledge for those exploring the truth of God's Word and wanting strength to stand for their beliefs.
- 4. Thank your team! Send personal notes to all those who served and participated in the event. Remember your outside partners and church's leadership team.
- 5. Thank your visitors! Call visitors who provided contact information. Thank them warmly for attending and ask them about their experience. Remind them of the ministry resources available at your church relating to the themes in the film. Tell them about upcoming events and offer to answer any questions about your church. Leave your contact number if they think of other questions or comments.

GOD'S NOT DEAD

Discussion Guide

How far would you...to defend your belief in God?

For Leaders: GOD'S NOT DEAD follows college freshman Josh Wheaton into an unexpected test of his faith and a challenging journey to defend it. His quest—and the stories of the lives interwoven—deals with themes of belief, courage, purpose, pain, hope, worldview and faith in action. Because open discussion can go in many directions, encourage your group to listen and speak respectfully and compassionately to all. Feel free to copy and share these questions with individuals and groups.

Opening Prayer: Heavenly Father, please open our hearts and minds, and guide our discussion. Reveal your truth and strengthen us. Amen.

1. Has your faith ever been challenged as directly as Josh's? What would you have done on the first day of philosophy class? Why?
2. What character do you identify with most? Why? What are some of the challenges faced by other people in the movie?
3. When Josh is trying to decide what to do, Pastor Dave gives him two Bible passages to read: Matthew 10:32-33 and Matthew 12:48. How do these verses apply to your life?
4. How did Josh's girlfriend try to influence him? Did she care more about him or about herself? In what ways did she show her true priorities? What would a healthy relationship have looked like? Have you ever had someone close to you try to influence you to compromise your beliefs? How did you handle it?
5. When Josh is trying to figure out what to do about Professor Radisson's challenge, he quotes C.S. Lewis: "Only a real risk tests the quality of belief." Is that always true? Why or why not?
6. Professor Radisson says, "Science and reason have supplanted faith." Josh says, "You don't have to commit intellectual suicide to believe in a Creator behind creation." Who do you agree with? Why or why not? What examples from science and reason does Josh point out to make his case for the existence of God?

7. Pastor Dave is frustrated because he doesn't feel like he is doing anything important ministry, but Rev. Jude says, "God has you exactly where He wants you. It's all part of a grand design." Read Luke 16:10. How does God use the pastor? What difference does Dave make in others' lives?

8. Josh says, "Evil is the most potent weapon against Christianity." Professor Radisson says he hates God because God allowed his mother to suffer and die. Why do evil and suffering exist in the world? Read Romans 5:12, Romans 8:28 and Romans 8:38-39.

9. How does Josh's willingness to take a stand affect other people? Who else takes a stand for Jesus? What are the results of their choices on other people? Read Hebrews 12:1 and Isaiah 55:10-11.

10. How does Professor Radisson's death and salvation make you feel? Are they fair? Read Luke 23:39-43, Romans 6:23 and John 3:16-17. Have you ever accepted Jesus' offer of forgiveness and eternal life? Would you like to?

Before leaving, pray together: God, thank you that your truth endures and has the power to change us in real ways. Fill us with your strength, courage and love, and use us in the ways you want. Thank you for life in your Son, Jesus. Amen.

Hopefully your discussion has brought new insight and encouragement to everyone involved. Before leaving, pray together: God, thank you that you are greater than any pain, suffering and tragedy in this world. Help us to experience the healing, forgiveness and hope that Jesus promises. Please fill us with your comfort and allow us to be a comfort to others. Amen.
